Jewish Meditation and Painting Workshop

“Many of us stop painting when we enter adulthood, but it is a wonderful tool to connect to the emotions and the unconscious mind. Painting provides a profound experience of relaxation and creativity.”

- Neria Cohen -

Neria Cohen originates from South Africa where she completed an honors degree in Drama, Film and English. She worked in the film industry in post-production in New York. Credits include “Looking for Richard” with Al Pacino. Neria studied at Machon Alte in Sfat, Israel for a year, and currently organizes creative events that fuse Judaism, music, art and dance.
